Weekly ReportIntelligence Community Staff

- IG/CI held second meeting on 23 September to initiate action on nine areas identified in the NSSD-2 study. The first draft of the hostile presence study was distributed at the meeting. Comments on the draft will be the subject of the next IG/CI meeting on 8 October, with the intention of completing the study during October.
- A proposed ADCI letter to Judge Clark was submitted to Security Committee members for concurrence. This letter asks for White House action on the recommendations (on how to deal with leaks) prepared by an interagency group and sent to the President by the Attorney General on 31 March 1982.

Directorate for Administration

- The Chief, Center for Counterterrorism and Crisis Response, Office of Medical Services, is currently on a TDY assignment in Honduras for consultations in connection with the hostage incident there.
- During the past week, individuals from the White House Communications Staff, the National Security Agency, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation attended the Office of Security's Information Systems Security Course.
- The secure voice service connecting the office of Mr. James L. Bush (HPSCI Staff Member) to the Agency's Secure Voice Network was activated on 17 September.
- On 27 September, the Acting Deputy Director for Administration will escort Congressman J. Kenneth Robinson [redacted] to visit the communications school.

- On 20 September the Agency filed a motion to dismiss or in the alternative to grant summary judgment in the John Doe case.

Inspector General

- The inspection team discovered that a piece of equipment being testing at NPIC has been operating without shielding and emanated SCI material. Further inquiries suggest that TEMPEST standards are not well established in the Agency and that a review of TEMPEST procedures is required.

Comptroller

- The Senate has completed Committee action on their version of an FY-1983 Continuing Appropriation Resolution which sets the levels contained in the recently reported Defense Bill as the benchmark for 1983 operations and allows new starts. A Conference Committee will have to resolve the differences between the two Houses; the House version set 1982 funding levels as the benchmark and does not allow new starts.

Office of External Affairs

- Bob Gates and Jim Glerum will meet with Phil Taubman, The New York Times, on Wednesday, 29 September, in connection with a story about the CIA that will appear in the New York Times Magazine.

Upcoming Calendar

- 28 September - NFIB Meeting (Acting DCI)
- 29 September - Meeting with Judge Clark (Acting DCI)
- 30 September - Briefing of HPSCI on New Clandestine Training Cite (Acting DCI)
- 1 October - Breakfast with Secretary of Defense (Acting DCI)
 - Lunch with Secretary of State (Acting DCI)
